Welcome to Shuhari Agency

Dear applicant We are excited to have you on board as a videographer with Shuhari Agency. Below is an outline of your role, what you can expect from us, and how we will support you in delivering top-tier work for clients.

Your role as a videographer at Shuhari Agency

As a videographer, your primary responsibility will be to produce visually stunning and creative content, including but not limited to: Video production and filming, camera operation and lighting setup and attending jobs based on the location and client requirements (Note: this is not a remote position)

You will need to ensure that each project meets the high-quality standards we are known for while providing your unique touch to every production. It is recommended that you have your own equipment to ensure readiness for any shoot. Our Support to you. We aim to help you succeed in your role by providing the following:

- Regional Support - We match you with clients and projects based on your location. This ensures that you work within your region when possible and avoid logistical challenges.
- Profile and Showreel on our website - We are currently developing a dedicated section on our website where you will have your own professional bio and showreel. This will help clients better understand your skills and the services you provide, streamlining the process of booking you for their projects.
- Client Bookings and Rate Management - We handle all client inquiries, bookings, and negotiations for you. Shuhari Agency adds 20% to your standard rate as a finder's fee. This ensures that your rate remains consistent while we facilitate the connection with clients.

We are finalizing the development of our website, which will serve as a key tool in presenting you to prospective clients. In the meantime, we will actively promote your work through our existing network. If you have any further questions or concerns, feel free to reach out to us at shuhari.agency@gmail.com. We are looking forward to building something great together and showcasing your talent to the world!

Thanks and best wishes,

Odwa Nonyati
